our school year in 13 words:

Our journey began when the sophomore, junior, and senior classes entered the doors of the Greater Latrobe Senior High building on a bright, exciting day. The sophomores embraced the building with an energetic attitude, finally reaching "senior high status." The junior class remained focused tackling obstacles such as SATs and scratching the surface of the college-decision process. The well-adapted seniors approached the school year with a chill attitude knowing that graduation was inching closer. As the year progressed, the strong barriers separating the classes began to crumble. The classrooms became more talkative, the outgoing students sparked long-lasting friendships with people they never before considered a friend. The athletes spent endless hours practicing with new teammates, all driven to succeed in one contributed goal. The diverse clubs came up with creative ideas and fundraisers to benefit the student body and other charitable organizations. As chaotic as the five-day school week was, Friday nights were always spent supporting your team. The fierce wildcat den, dressed according to the planned theme, screamed loud chants and bold cheers in devotion to their school pride. The student body became united as one voice, being heard throughout the hallways, classrooms, and sporting events. When the seniors turn into college freshmen making room for upcoming sophomores, the spirited nature will be carried on in their footsteps. No matter the route our future takes us, we can all trace our steps back to doors of Greater Latrobe Senior High.

A trip across the world to France or Germany, playing in a soccer game, helping the planet in many different ways, even hanging out with your friends in the summertime; wouldn't you say you'd be energetic to do all of these things? Well, all of the Greater Latrobe Senior High School students were involved in many activities that made them energetic. Traveling abroad and participating in the sports you love to play makes it easier and more fun to be involved in energetic school activities.

summer fun in the sun

Summer is a time to kick back, relax, and escape from the everyday stress of school. A lot of students like to stay up late and enjoy the luxury of sleeping in the next day. Swimming was a very popular activity over the summer. Additionally, many students went camping with friends or went on walks to stay active. Junior Ashly Keefe said, "I was active by swimming, walking, and shopping this summer. The most exciting thing I did was go camping with my friends." Senior Amanda Frenchik said, "I stayed active by riding my horse four times a week and working at my barn. The most exciting thing I did was go to Disney World for the first time." Many students also go on vacation during the summer, either with their family or friends. Senior Patrick Rounds said, "I went parasailing at the beach in Kitty Hawk, North Carolina. I got to fly 500 feet in the air with my best friend Cory Saddler." Along with the beach, students also go to concerts, bonfires, or travel overseas during summer break. All in all, students at Latrobe enjoy their three months off by partaking in many fun activities or simply just relaxing.

Bonjour, France! Students learned more about the French culture when they went and saw it themselves. On a nine day trip to France, Mrs. Zalewski, Mrs. Leeper, and twenty very lucky students got to see all of what France had to offer. They explored the city of Paris, attended a cooking class, saw what influenced the film "Saving Private Ryan", and witnessed world renowned art. Junior Stephanie Smith stated, "We walked everyday. Everything is so close together in Paris." In Normandy, they got to walk along the coastline and tour with WWII battlefields. Junior Brittney Bueche said, "The best thing I saw was the Eiffel Tower when it was glittering." Seeing the culture for yourself is so different from just seeing pictures or reading about it. Junior Aaron Fish said, "I honestly thought that the snails were going to be horrible, but after I tried them, they were not that bad." The group also ate crepes, quiche, and creme brulee. The culture of another place is an amazing thing to see.

germany a new world

In June, 30 students traveled to Germany to turn their classroom learnings into real-life experiences. While visiting Germany, they made many stops along the way. One stop that was talked highly about was when they got to see Mt. Pilatus, a mountain in Switzerland. Many of the students spoke about how great the view was from the top. The students also spoke very highly about the food in Germany and said that they really enjoyed the lunches offered. Senior Ivy Pregelmann said, "The food was really good when you picked what you wanted to eat for lunch, and the dinners that they served were good for the most part." The students were surprised to see how different the culture was in Germany compared to here in the United States. Germany is very traditional with some older cities such as Rothenburg yet they also have some that are more modern. The lifestyles were also very different from here in America. Overall, the students loved the trip and recommended going on the next trip to Germany!

england and scotland "gold medal" travels

mrs. penzera in 13 words: "everything was so fabulous; i can't pick one event that was most special."

This past summer, a group of students from Greater Latrobe Senior High School traveled to England and Scotland. Their trip began on June 22 at the Pittsburgh airport. Due to delayed flights, bad weather, and lost luggage, their trip had a rough start, but they were still able to make the most out of every minute. The group toured cities such as London, Stratford, and Edinburgh. In London, they toured to Windsor following a viewing of "Wicked." During the trip, they saw breathtaking architecture and landmarks such as the Stirling Castle, William Wallace Monument, Stonehenge, Shakespeare's cottage, the London Eye, and the famous clock tower, "Big Ben." The students were able to experience the foreign cultures that England and Scotland have to offer. "The culture, however, in Scotland is similar to the U.S. but better in all of the right ways", says junior PJ Dumnich. The group arrived home eleven days later on July 2. Their travels in Europe made their classroom experiences come to life, and they created memories that they will never forget.

junior emma kate womack in 13 words: "we were a family. we always supported one another, which kept us motivated."

The 2012 girls' soccer team showed that with hard work at practices, perseverance through games, and a few inside jokes, a successful season was inevitable. The lady cats set a goal early in the season to make playoffs, although they fell just short of it, finishing with a record of 11-7. Led by captains, seniors Julie Slezak, Gina Rock, Sarah Fox, and junior Allison LaDuke, the team still had major accomplishments throughout the season. Collectively, the team was proud to beat Franklin Regional and senior Marissa Duvall mentioned that the team was "more competitive in our section by going into overtime with teams such as Norwin and Penn Trafford." The Latrobe girls never went down without a fight, which resulted in memories to last a lifetime. Senior Gina Rock stated that her favorite memory of the season would definitely be "crushing Hempfield...twice." Overall, the Latrobe girls' soccer team stayed loose and energized, all while supporting each other, to finish with another winning season.

senior brett baughman in 13 words: "we started out slow but we made up for it in the end!"

During the boys soccer season, the teammates stated that they get pumped up for a game with their coaches' "CANT WAIT!" speech. The boys would scream "CAN'T WAIT" in the locker room and get fired up. The speech gets everyone energetic and in the mood to win. Throughout the season the guys practiced hard. The team was determined to have good season and really worked for it. Senior night against Derry was their most memorable game. They beat Derry 6 to 1 and were never happier. The seniors were happy to have a win on their big night. One captain Matt Wano stated "It was awesome! we finally brought together everything that as a team we had been working on for years in this one game and we got to beat up on a team like Derry. It's the kind of game you can feel good about leaving this program with." The team practiced hard and the win came well deserved. They pushed through their hard work outs to get that big win. The boys worked on their skills and by the end of the year they had really improved. Everyone was so excited for them and how much they improved this season. They really came together as a team. They will never forget the memories they made during this season.

It doesn't matter what time of the year it is at Greater Latrobe High School, we show our spirit no matter what. Whether you're cheering on Reitz's Raiders during football season or Wetzel's Warriors during basketball season, the Wildcat Den shows we're the most spirited school around. The students never miss a game to cheer on our teams. The Cheerleaders and Dance Team make sure they keep the crowd pumped up as well to increase the spirit. The marching band never fails to put on a great performance either; they are spirited every time they play. The Prayer and Worship, SADD, and Letterman's Clubs are always helping others around the community to bring spirit to people's everyday lives. The Softball team even keeps the spirit alive towards the end of the year, ending with a big bang to the school year. GLHS is definitely a place where being spirited never ends.

sophomore cass hatten in 13 words: "cheering on teams and each other gets us more excited about the game!"

The cheerleading squad is an important factor for the school to provide and enhance school spirit. They began their season after a four-day tryout in April with new coaches this year, head coach Rachel Sirgey and assistant coach Sarah Frederick. After the elimination, the team, led by captain Erika Hudock and co-captain Emily Echard, began practicing in July to be prepared for their first annual mini-camp for young cheerleaders in kindergarten through sixth grade at the end of July as well as their annual UCA Summer Camp in August. After their camp in August, they practiced for the rest of summer to then prepare for the rest of the 10 month season awaiting them. As football season finally arrived, they practiced once to twice a week for their Friday night games. The squad enjoyed cheering at the home and away games, win or lose they were always there to support the team. The last home game served as a "Pink Out". They all wore pink shirts, bows, and even had pink pom-poms in honor of Breast Cancer Awareness Month. "It was a great way to end football season, it was the best game of the year. I would say everyone including the crowd had a great time," stated sophomore Hannah Gruss. As basketball and wrestling season quickly approached, the cheerleaders prepared for the exciting seasons ahead of them, knowing their long season would soon be coming to an end. Whether you are at a football game, basketball game, or wrestling match, you will always see the cheerleaders in attendance.

the wildcat den cheer on the cats

Junior hannah kiesel in 13 words: "pink out because everyone's outfits were interesting and the game was very exciting."

The goal this year of many seniors was to increase school spirit in the high school. Needless to say, the job was accomplished through the entire student body by coming out to support the cats at numerous sporting events. Reitz's Raiders were in full swing at the football games with exciting den themes, such as camo night, toga night, neon night, and costume party. The great energy from the football games carried over to the basketball games where Wetzel's Warriors helped bring much spirit to the gymnasium. Students also participated in fun and interesting themes during basketball season, such as African safari, country club, America, suits and shades, and heros and villains. Students did not only attend football and basketball games, but many other sporting events as well. The athletes greatly appreciated the support from all of their classmates. Each class contributed greatly to regaining wildcat pride and filling Greater Latrobe Senior High full of school spirit once again. The spirit and pride can only increase from here on out! Let's Go Wildcats!

softball

sophomore sam dull in 13 words: "we were one of the school sports that participated in the pep rally."

The Greater Latrobe Girls' softball team set the bar high for yet another season. Their success in the past set them up for great things, especially with the return of two starters, seniors Kaity Finley and Olivia Gumbita. The team began pre-season workouts at the very beginning of the school year with the hopes of being contenders into late June. The spring season kicked off with less than appealing weather, with the temperatures still low and rain falling nearly everyday. The girls were forced to stay in the gym for a few weeks, but soon enough, they got to practice on their home turf down at Rotary Field. Teamwork was especially important to the team's success, as each class was represented as starters on the field. Another vital piece to the team's success was new coach Richard Shaheen. The girls agreed that he pushed them harder than ever before, but their training paid off in the end. The girls grinded through the season with games spread out every couple days, a mixture of important section games and exhibition games where they could figure out what worked for them. The team never forgot about the big three goals throughout each and every game: win sections, win WPIAL's, and finally, win states. With all their hard work and training behind them, the girls' softball team had yet another successful season, proudly representing the Latrobe Wildcats.

■ ■ ■ ■ We will always remember 2013 as being a very loud year. It is near impossible to describe the numerous aspects that made the student body loud in 13 words. The credit could be due to the sophomore class, who made their first year in the senior high one that they will never forget. Homecoming was also extraordinarily loud this year, as well as the concert, symphonic, and jazz band. New this year was the women's choir, making a loud statement as they sang full of heart. The construction process was also loud at times, but it will be well worth it in the end. 2013 was definitely a loud, unforgettable school year.

junior jake puleo in 13 words: "everyone in the den dressed in hilarious costumes definitely made the game loud!"

Whether you were playing your heart out on the field, patiently awaiting the crowning of the homecoming queen on the court, or cheering in the den, October 12 was a memorable night for everyone. To kick off the evening before the game, the Homecoming Court, band, cheerleaders, and clubs around the school took part in a parade around town. Interact Club's float won the best float and raised the most money for breast cancer and Key Club's float took best costume for the Blue Man Group. Before the game even began, the den was already loud and excited. Everybody had a good time letting their creative side out when it came to costumes for the costume party theme of the night. During halftime, the Homecoming Court gathered on the football field; each girl anxious to hear who would be crowned as the queen. When senior Hayley Simpson was announced, the stadium filled with praise and applause. Even though the tough game against Altoona resulted in an unfortunate loss of 34-23 for the boys, all of the students enjoyed the events of the evening and had a good time overall.

homecoming dance

Bright lights big city

senior michael brooks in 13 words: "the one with the words and good beat and the really catchy chorus..."

On October 13 2012, students gathered in the school commons area for an evening of fun hosted by the student council. This year's theme was "Bright Lights Big City" with decorations transforming the commons area into a paparazzi worthy party. The Student Council provided the students with a wide variety of refreshments and a fantastic DJ that kept the party going on for hours. All the students agreed that he kept the energy high and got everyone on the dance floor. Some students went as couples and others went with a group of friends, but everyone had a blast no matter what. When asked who their favorite person to dance with was, sophomore Anna Wears said "definitely Britney Gaia, I don't think she stopped all night!" Once the dance ended, the fun certainly didn't stop. Some students went to bonfires and hung out with friends while other students gathered at Lincoln Lanes bowling alley. All the events made for an evening full of fun and excitement that will definitely be a lifelong memory for all!

athletic/wellness complex

junior sara haenel in 13 words: "the new field's a great idea, provided teams make full use of it."

This year, construction was underway for the new athletic/wellness complex being built behind the school. The purpose of the new complex is to increase student participation, resulting in improved student achievement. The complex is designed to create leveled competitive facilities in a campus like setting. It will also enhance facilities for physical education classes at the junior and senior high school. The athletic/wellness complex is intended to provide comprehensive practice and team facilities for all athletes. Not only will the new complex be beneficial to students and athletes, but it will also enhance community pride. The complex is planned to have new tennis courts, a new track and field with bleachers, a fitness center, soccer fields, baseball fields, basketball courts, a putting green, and much more. Students and the community were not able to witness actual buildings rising or fields being installed this year, but much excitement was created for future years in the Greater Latrobe School District. The athletic/wellness complex is guaranteed to make Greater Latrobe an even better place to learn, grow, and perform through the A+ Campaign.

girls track

senior sarah fox in 13 words: "we have our own groups like sprinting, and we compete in many events."

With many runners, jumpers, and throwers returning from states and WPIAL's last year the girls Greater Latrobe track team had a successful season as expected. From throwing and jumping to the many running events, the diversity helped the team achieve victory. Not only the diversity in events but also the diversity that the athletes had in their workouts starting in March helped them to stay conditioned and push themselves every day. Whether it was at the track, the senior high grounds or the pool, the athletes were always ready to work and improve. The team's many veteran athletes helped to mentor and give helpful hints to the up and coming athletes on the team. Although there are countless events, not one athlete or event carried the team through the meets. The girls track team did a superb job at pulling their fair share of the responsibility that must be taken for the team to win many meets that they attended. All of the girls on this years team contributed to each win, but there were many standouts on the team as well. Many of them being veteran athletes but some of them being the sophomores on the team. This gives a great outlook to Head Coach Wnek for the seasons to come now that many of the standout seniors have left. The diversity that the team has because of the many events has not divided the team, but instead helped them to achieve countless victories.

boys track

sophomore josh shivetts in 13 words: "track is diverse because people with all different skills can excel and contribute."

No matter what type of athlete you are, there is most likely a spot on the track and field team for you. From sprinting, running distance, and pole vaulting, to long, high, and triple jump and throwing, our track and field team is very diverse. Starting out in the beginning of March, the team began training for their long season, ending with States at the end of May. With some boys coming straight out of their indoor track and field season, they were always ready to work. The boys trained long and hard during their practices, whether it was in the pool, conditioning, or on the track. Despite the fact that they only had 3 home meets this year, they still managed to have a successful season. Having many different runners, jumpers and throwers, the boys always went to each meet with a team wide goal to win. Whether it was an invitational, dual meet, or states, the boys fought hard to overcome any obstacles that were placed in their paths. Overall, the boys track team had a pretty successful season, not only in the sprinting and distance running, but also in the throwing, pole vault, and long, high, and triple jump as well.

senior allie daly in 13 words: "i work at brothers/justice. i work with my best friend, rebecca baldonieri."

When you reach high school, you start to gain more responsibility. For example, you start driving but have no money for a car or gas, or you go out with your friends and need money to spend, so you get a job. Jobs differ between each person such as where you work and how that job has an effect on your personality. Senior, Raechel Guzik who works at Gino's, stated that, "my job is pretty much the same as other high schoolers. It's just a job to get started on some money for college and it really reflects my personality, it shows how much of a people person I am: I guess I'm just easy to get along with!" Getting a job is just a part of being a teenager, to start saving money. Your parents may not pay for everything for you anymore as you get older, so getting a job is a great way to be independent and responsible. Senior, Hannah Jones works at Eat'N'Park and said, "my job is different than most teenagers. Most work fast food or selling clothing, and I'm a hostess. My job shows that I am responsible and I enjoy being around people and interacting with them" So as you can see, jobs are different between teenagers, but teens all have a job for mostly the same reasons.

senior ashley thiel in 13 words: "even though we have had our bad days, we still had positive attitudes."

Coming back bold from the previous season, the Latrobe girls volleyball team made it through a tough season with its ups and downs. Lauren Solomon stated, "With only two returning starters, we were not considered a powerhouse team." There were five seniors whose leadership proved key in the teams success. However, the team faced several difficulties throughout the season. Although the team did not qualify for postseason play, they were able to capture the Westmoreland County Coaches Association title for the third year in a row. There were many new faces to this years team. Two new coaches, Jordan Zeunges and Jon Walker, were introduced to the team. The girls responded very well to the new coaches and changes, and good relationships were developed. Sophomore Kelsey Paul, member of junior varsity, stated that she enjoyed the fact that there was a new assistant coach and that he got along well with the whole team. Walker became a vital part of the game, as Paul stated, "I dance and sing with Jon Walker," as her pre game routine. Senior Maggie Kisick also proclaimed that she developed great relationships with her teammates throughout the season. She stated, "Our team was unique in that we all got along on a daily basis. This really helped us through the pits of the season and led us to the many peaks." With the many changes made and challenges faced, the lady cats are able to say that they had a fun and memorable season.

senior matt dunlap in 13 words: "for every kill we had, i would run a lap around the gym."

Coming back bold from a winning record last season, the boys volleyball team was motivated and determined to have another successful season in 2013. From the start of the season, the team had high expectations with seven returning seniors. During the off season, many attended open gyms and conditioning, preparing for the start of the season in March. These off season workouts motivated many and created a bold statement regarding their dedication. The boys persevered through tough practices and conditioning throughout the first weeks of the season, as head coach Drew Vosefski and assistant coach Jon Walker prepared their team for the first game against Gateway. The team goal throughout the entire season was to win the section title make it far in the playoffs. The varsity had a wide range of players from each grade. From the senior class to the freshmen class, each player contributed greatly to the overall success of the team. Much of their success was due to teamwork that was displayed throughout the duration of the season. The team spent a lot of time together, whether it was at practice or a weekend tournament, and created great bonds and relationships with one another. At the end of the season, the team traveled to State College for the annual invitational tournament at Penn State. From year to year, the boys would agree that this is definitely one highlight of the season, displaying all of the hard work they have done throughout the year. Because of this hard work, dedication, and perseverance, the boys volleyball team was able to consider 2013 another successful season.

byod gives students options

This year, the school board implemented the idea of letting students bring their own computer to school or rent a school laptop for the year. With every choice comes advantages and disadvantages. Most people have a common answer as the advantages of using the school computer. Senior Abby Muller said that she uses the school computer because, "it's cheap, and if it breaks I can take it to the technology department to get it repaired." Sophomore Anja Lenhart decided that she would bring her own device this year, but is not completely satisfied, stating, "the computer tends to run slow on the school's network, and it is a bit more of a challenge to access the printer." Overall, many students believe the pros out-weigh the cons.

dual enrollment head start

Greater Latrobe Senior High School, like many schools in the surrounding area, provide many seniors with the opportunity to earn college credits before graduating. Dual enrollment provides students with the opportunity to actually go on campus and attend classes along side college students. Each student is given the option to either attend St. Vincent College, which is located minutes from the high school, or drive to Youngwood to attend Westmoreland County Community College. A general schedule for dual students is to attend high school in the morning and then go to their college classes in the afternoon. Some students even like to attend morning classes at the campus and go to high school in the afternoon. This year at Greater Latrobe, some classes offer the opportunity students to receive college credits through Penn Highlands for select high school courses. This is a great opportunity for any student who has all of their high school credits fulfilled and would like a challenge during their senior year.

learn something new, be creative

Students at Greater Latrobe have the privilege of choosing classes that prepare them for a job that interests them. They have the opportunity to attend Eastern Westmoreland Career and Technology Center, EWCTC. There are many classes students can take including nursing, masonry, cosmetology, photography, digital media technology, culinary arts, automotive repair, plumbing, welding, as well as many others. Seniors who attend the career and technology center go in the afternoon. Most seniors who attend a technology class said it was a great decision because they get to learn from a hands-on experience. These students chose their class because they want to pursue a career that brings them enjoyment after they graduate. They get the opportunity to participate in their trade rather than sitting in a classroom. Eastern Westmoreland Career and Technology Center gives students the privilege to learn in a unique way.

Sophomores and juniors who attend Eastern Westmoreland Career and Technology Center, also known as EWCTC, have had many hands-on experiences throughout the year. There are five career clusters: Automotive, Construction, Communications and Information Technology, Manufacturing, and Services. Students can obtain nationally-recognized certifications in 13 of the 15 programs. At EWCTC, students learn high levels of technical skills that are vital to the student's achievement. Vo-tech provides the support each student needs for success. Vo-tech students commented on the family-like atmosphere between the teachers, administration, and staff. The instructors and administration strive to see the students succeed both in and out of school. EWCTC also has National Tech Honor Society consisting of excelling students with a high GPA. The NTHS students are known for going above and beyond and participating in community service outside of the school. The Eastern Westmoreland Career and Technology Center students have participated in interactive assignments to prepare themselves for a successful and productive future.

almost, maine 2012 fall play

This fall, the cast of Almost, Maine worked very hard to accomplish an amazing production. Almost, Maine is made up of nine small plays composed into one. The setting is a small town called Almost, Maine, where the characters are exposed to and explore love and loss. The production challenged the cast with different roles, but also made it fun for them to discover and perform new characters. Although the cast put on an outstanding production, they also faced some challenges. The play was performed in the Center for Student Creativity this year, due to renovations taking place in the auditorium. The CSC is smaller, requiring the cast to perform in a more confined space than on stage. Although this play provided a challenge for the cast, the hard work put in from not only the students, but also Mr. Krack and Mr. Murray, definitely paid off.

the wizard of oz

follow the yellow brick road

The Greater Latrobe Senior High School Drama Club staged an outstanding musical production this year with the Wizard of Oz. Led by Mr. Krack, the cast of 120 students soared above and beyond the expectations of so many. One feature that stood out to so many was the ability of the characters to fly across the stage, bringing even more excitement to the production. The great acting and performance by the students allowed you to laugh out loud at times, and definitely held a smile on your face throughout the entire show. It allowed you to discover the true meaning behind the play, that you must look within yourself to be truly content. The cast and crew worked many long hours to produce a spectacular show, and many lifelong friendships were developed in the midst. Perhaps these friendships can be compared to that of Dorothy, Scarecrow, Tin Man, and Lion, teaching us that the most meaningful adventures are in our relationships with others. The Wizard of Oz will definitely be remembered by all as one of the best musicals performed at Greater Latrobe Senior High School.

What's more fierce than a wildcat? Students all around the high school showed their fierceness in many different ways throughout this year. The girls on the field hockey team showed their claws throughout their season to make it memorable. Battle of the halls before homecoming also showed just how fierce each grade was capable of being when students battled it out to decorate their hall. Both the boys and girls swim and lacrosse teams used their fierce attitudes to rise above the competition during their seasons as well. Keeping our fierce wildcat pride made this year one worth remembering.

senior kevin davoli in 13 words: "having the opportunity to repeat and try to win such an intense competition."

As the students of Greater Latrobe entered school on Wednesday morning, they decorated with excitement to see that their hallways were covered with decorations. Battle of the Halls takes place every year for homecoming week, and is a great way for the students to show school spirit. On Tuesday, October 9, students from each grade level stayed after school to decorate their locker areas hoping to win Battle of the Halls for their grade to be named the best hallway decorated. The sophomores in the H-hallway showed their spirit by hanging up posters, streamers, balloons, and much more. In the S-hallway, the juniors had streamers coming down from the lockers, lights, a road and a poster saying "Speed Limit 14" as well as a cut out car, showing everyone else had no chance against them. The seniors in the upstairs C-hallway had lights, posters and balloons. They also had a big sign that said "Just The 13eginning" hanging above the lockers representing their senior year that is starting their future life to come. After a very close competition, the juniors came out victorious this year.

It was said by other teams that Latrobe may be the most improved team in the section this year. From this, it can be inferred that the lady cats had another successful season. The team had many high points throughout the season. The lady cats came out fierce as they won their season opener against Upper Saint Clair. Senior captain Kylie Luke agreed that this was definitely a "high" of the season. Although the team was very successful at times, they also had their struggles throughout the season. Luke also commented that, "a low this year was that we had trouble finding the back of the net." This may have been true at times, but they were able came back to win their last game, a great way to end a memorable season. Many memories were made along the way that the team will always share. Sophomore Taylor Kokoska stated that her favorite memories came from "the car rides up to practice." Junior Alexa Stynchula's favorite memory was simply "spending everyday with [her] team." The girls field hockey team finished their season with a record of 4-9. The girls consider this a successful season due to the strong relationships and friendships that were developed. The girls look forward to training in the off-season and preparing for another good season next year.

sophomore rachael boggs in 13 words:
"we're extremely hard working and motivate ourselves to be the best we can."

The girls swimming & diving team had yet another exciting season. Under head coach Grey Arrigonie, new assistant coach DeOnna Kelly, and new diving coach Ben Wells, the girls were able to find success. Starting in November, the team endured morning practices before school 2-3 days a week as well as practices Monday through Saturday. With a unique mix of pool and dryland workouts, the hours spent between the pool and the weight room soon became worth it. Faced with the challenge of heavyweight Franklin Regional entering their section, the team knew that defending their three-time section championship title would be no easy task. After a hard week of practices over Christmas Break, the girls team defeated Franklin Regional on January 3, making a fourth straight year of being section champions all the more attainable. The team dived with precision and swam hard at all remaining meets, also keeping in mind that an undefeated season could be reached. The Lady Cats continued to show that they would not be denied when they captured first place at the Westmoreland County Coaches Association meet held at Derry. Keeping their goals in mind, the team kept moving forward when on February 14 at Hempfield, it became official. Continuing their tradition of excellence, the girls swimming & diving team were section champions for the fourth-straight year, and as an added bonus, finished with a perfect record of 12-0.

boys swimming & diving

senior david henderson in 13 words: "we really strive to be a very dynamic and intense group of swimmers."

Despite the low number of team members, the boys swimming & diving team trained hard to make sure they stayed competitive. With roughly eight practices a week, the boys made sure that everything they put into practice would result in making huge impacts at meets. Led by captains David Henderson and Jacob Dingman, the boys were able to counteract their small size with their impressive swims. Most meets were hard fought battles that came down to the final point, and these boys did not go down without a fight. Sophomore Taylor Barta was able to kick off scoring at meets with his excellent diving scores that allowed him to qualify for WPIAL's in his very first year on the team. Several other boys that swam hard to qualify for the WPIAL meet held at the University of Pittsburgh were Michael Marinchak, Adam Henderson, David Henderson, and Jacob Dingman. The boys team was also able to make an impact at the Westmoreland County Coaches Association meet, placing sixth out of fifteen teams. All in all, these boys showed that it wasn't about how many participants there were, but about how they left their mark in the pool.

girls lacrosse

sophomore naomi schwaiger in 13 words:
"we work as hard as possible during practices to make the playoffs again."

Despite the fact that the season did not start until March 4th, that didn't stop the girls lacrosse team from practicing and training hard during the winter months. With the loss of many seniors from last year, the girls knew they would have to fight hard and give 110% in every practice in order to have a successful season. With their dedication and fierce attitude to succeed, the girls knew they were capable of this. Led by a tight-knit group of upperclassmen, these girls helped coach incoming freshmen as well as new faces on the basics of lacrosse as well as teaching them tricks and skills. Coach Kaytie Russo has set a number of goals for the girls this season and has faith that they will be able to reach them with hard work. "After losing seven starters last season, I'm looking forward to working with the girls to step up and fill those positions. I see a lot of potential in our girls and don't see any reason why we won't be strong competition this season. We have a young team this year, but our younger players show a lot of playing potential for the season. The girls and coaches are all on the same page of doing whatever it takes to get back to playoffs this year." Having 14 games this season, the girls will play backyard rivals Hempfield and Greensburg Salem, as well as some distant competition like Ellis and Seton LaSelle. With their motivation, hard work, and determination to make the playoffs, it is evident that the girls lacrosse team will have a remarkable season and accomplish their goals.

senior gian prosperi in 13 words: "our heads are in the game and we are focused more than ever."

The boys lacrosse team had an amazing, dedicated season. The boys started conditioning early this year to get ahead of the game. The team worked extremely hard throughout every practice. The team as a whole strived to do a little better everyday and put much of their time into practicing. Lacrosse is not just a sport to these players, it is their lives. Everyone was very determined to enhance their skills throughout the season. Rain, shine, and even snow, the lacrosse team was out practicing hard to achieve their goals. Practices were difficult with the muddy fields they practiced on this season, but they pushed through. Jake Artuso stated, "This year the team was committed to reaching our potential by bringing game level energy to every practice. We were excited to see the results!" The amount of energy put into practices as well as games was tremendous this season. The team put so much dedication and time into the sport. Everyone, including coaches and parents, worked hard to help in anyway possible. Coaches David Leskell and Dan Quinn took much of their time working with the players on skill technique. This season was full of hard work and dedication by every player. Their drive for success pushed them through an amazing season.

■ ■ ■ ■ ■ Staying driven throughout the school year can be tough at times, but we all kept on the right track to success. The cross country teams stayed driven from summer until fall, running hard at long practices and meets to keep their winning tradition alive. The golf team stayed driven each time they teed off on the course, showing their talent as a team. The Allied Health and Young Engineers programs kept their minds on how to do something new, being driven to learn different things. As students became older, they loved having the benefits that awaited them finally arrive, such as driving to school. Although the juniors were eagerly awaiting their senior year, they stayed driven to tackle their most important year of high school. All in all, everyone had something they were driven for this school year.

senior jenna ulishney in 13 words: "this season has been full of great memories created by many great teammates."

The girls cross country team began its season on September 5 at Altoona. The girls took on the hosts and the teams from Gateway in an exhibition meet. As a team, our ladies won against both Gateway and Altoona. Individually, Hanna Green took home first place with the total time of 20:37. On September 8, the girls gathered at Schenley Park for the Red, White, and Blue Classic. The team placed tenth out of twenty-five teams. Scoring for the girls were Hanna Green, Katie Slivko, Mary Fratto, Cassidy Schultheis, and Casey Columbus. Two weeks later, the team traveled to Maymont Cross Country Festival in Richmond, Virginia. The race started at 1:05 PM with the distance of 5,000 meters. The girls placed third out of nineteen teams. Senior Cassidy Christian said, "Our team is like a family, and we all get along very well. We have each others backs and always have fun when we are together." Senior Kate Rellick also stated, "Having close friends as my teammates this season kept me and everyone else driven till the end." The team members are very close and their hard work pays off. Overall, the girls cross country team placed first in their section.

boys cross country

junior kevin augustine in 13 words: "the boys xc team was driven this season; our hard work paid off."

The Boys Cross Country team had a memorable season. They were third in the section. They finished this season 4-2. Many of the runners made new personal records. A great number of them improved their times through out their season. They dedicated themselves to long, hard practices to achieve their goal times. Junior Kevin Augustine stated "Hard work and dedication is all it makes to have a good team." The boys showed a great effort during this season and accomplished their goals. Even though their practices were difficult they still had fun. One of the captains, Eric Mills, states "Every chance we got we would play football or get out the Frisbee, we would make the best of ever moment. The season was hard but worth it." Throughout the season the boys found time to throw around a football and play frisbee. No matter what happened they made sure their season was fun. With their dedication and high spirits, the boys cross country team ended their season with great improvements. Their dedication payed off in the end. The guys had an unforgettable season.

senior william wears in 13 words: "all our practice paid off in the end when we won WPIAL semifinals."

The golf team won counties, co-section championships, and WPIAL semifinals. The team got along great this season. Will Wears said, "The most memorable moment was winning WPIAL semifinals." Each player from the team did an amazing job. Senior Benjamin Biss said, "I feel like I played good this season, and I would say that I contributed a great deal to the team this year." Local professional golfer, Arnold Palmer once said, "The game has such a hold on golfers because they compete not only against an opponent but also against the course, against par, and most surely-against themselves. Success in this game depends less on the strength of the body than strength of mind and character." Needless to say, all the teammates have a great mind and an astonishing character. Junior, Adam Martin said, "I enjoyed the season, and we were successful." People that don't consider golf as a great sport don't take into consideration how much thought and skill each and every player has to put into a single round of golf. Arnold Palmer was correct when he said that a player most-surely has to compete against themselves.

young engineers program achieving the competitive edge

Greater Latrobe continues to prepare students for the future in numerous ways, one being Kennametal's Young Engineers Program. Through this program, students are able to experience the field of engineering and manufacturing first hand. Greater Latrobe students attend Kennametal corporate headquarters twice a week, meeting with engineers and innovators to expand their knowledge outside of the classroom. Through the course of the semester, students are required to work in groups to design a project of their choice. The group projects are critiqued in front of a panel of employees several times throughout the semester. The Young Engineers are advised to take what they have learned from the many innovators and engineers and apply these ideas to their projects. Kennametal also shares their value to the community through the students, as each class volunteers at Westmoreland County Food Bank on behalf of the company. Through this program, students are able to gain the upper hand in knowledge and experience before entering college as an engineering major.

allied health

working to make a difference

Allied Health is an internship program that Greater Latrobe has with Latrobe Area Hospital for seniors interested in pursuing health care related professions in college. Students spend the first month in the classroom learning topics such as the history of health care, medical terminology, patient confidentiality, first aid, and even CPR. Students then go on rotations at Latrobe Area Hospital, having the opportunity to shadow a professional from every aspect of the health care field as well as documenting their experience in journals. "Having the ability to see all of the careers in the medical field helped immensely in confirming my decision to become a nurse", said senior Mary Fratto. Towards the end of the program, students select the field or doctor of their choice to shadow for eight hours and complete an essay on their experience. All in all, the students spend over 90 hours in classroom instruction and clinical rotations, growing every day.

driving to school

junior tarah khifer in 13 words: "my boyfriend is able to pick me up every single morning for school!"

Whether it be taking the bus, driving a car, or carpooling with friends, transportation has always been an important factor when it comes to many students at Greater Latrobe Senior High School. Some students at Greater Latrobe prefer driving to school rather than riding the bus. Many students utilize each other and carpool to school everyday. Carpooling makes it easier for a lot of students and it lessens the burden on their pockets, due to the rising price of gas as well as the parking pass. To be able to park at Greater Latrobe, students are required to purchase a parking pass. There are many different options in purchasing the pass to accommodate the students needs of driving. Driving to school is considered a great privilege that is granted to students and can be taken away with misconduct. It is something that students take advantage of, but always does not come so easy. Many students are economically smart and are still taking advantage of school provided transportation. It doesn't get much better than free!

senior sean pischke in 13 words: "i like to go snowboarding because i think it's a lot of fun."

Latrobe's winters bring several feet of snow, chilly temperatures, and plenty of school closings and delays. What's most important to the students of Greater Latrobe Senior High though is all the fun activities that comes along with the season. Beginning in December, students started up their holiday activities such as going to ice skate around the big Christmas tree in Pittsburgh, or driving out to the Westmoreland Fairgrounds to view all the holiday lights at Overly's. When temperatures dropped below freezing, many students grabbed their skates and sticks and headed to the Wimmerton pond to play some pond hockey. Whoever wished to just watch some hockey, however, could catch some action at the Consol Energy Center where the Pittsburgh Penguins play. Some students had a more classic approach to the winter season by building snowmen or grabbing some hot chocolate at the Coffee Bean. After the first big snow, crowds of students traveled to Seven Springs to ski and snowboard. Whatever the activity, the students of Greater Latrobe made the most of the winter season by staying active and filling their "chill" time with dozens of activities.

senior matt dunlap in 13 words: "our team name was the dimmsdale bubbler nuggets which automatically made us cool."

PolarPalooza is a fun, exciting event for friends to get together and hangout. Students had the opportunity to form a team of six. They got to express their creativeness by choosing their team name and uniforms. Most teams coordinated outfits and had shirts made for PolarPalooza. During the event, teams competed in different activities to acquire points. Throughout the night, students competed in Mario Kart, Dance Central, ping pong, corn hole, volleyball, badminton, soccer, basketball, and dodge ball. PolarPalooza took place February 22 and lasted from 3:30 pm to 10:30 pm. The team, "The Drake Drakers" won first place and also won the basketball tournament. The team "The Bad Beaches" won best team spirit and team name. The team, "Sets on the Beach" won the volleyball tournament, the team "Illuminati" won the dodge ball tournament, and the team "Waffles" won the soccer tournament. A DJ and food were available for entertainment throughout the night. PolarPalooza was a successful night and all the teams put in such a great effort towards each game. So many students participated in PolarPalooza and created a night to remember!

senior josh singley in 13 words: "try not to over think things and remember that it's only a game."

The Greater Latrobe IceCats ended their regular season very successful heading into the playoffs with another winning record. Throughout the season, the team became close as a group and pushed each other to improve and work to their hardest abilities. They finished with an overall record of 16-3, placing second in their section. The team was led by senior captain, Josh Singley, and assistant captains senior Robert Vasinko, and junior Adam Ferguson. The whole team put forth their effort week by week to gain a spot and another chance for their playoff run to end them with another State Championship. To begin their quest for another PIHL Penguins Cup and State Championship, the team played Hampton High School in a PIHL Class AA Quarterfinals game and won by a score of 2 to 0. The team then went on to play Chartiers Valley High School in the semifinal game and won by a score of 3 to 2, for a place in the finals against Pine Richland. Latrobe went on to win their fourth PIHL Pens Cup title in 6 years with a 5 to 0 win over Pine Richland. Moving on to the state championship against Parkland, Latrobe dominated throughout the game and won their fourth Pennsylvania Cup in six years by a score of 4 to 1. With this win, the Wildcats maintained their perfect record in state title games. All in all, with the four PIHL Class AA Penguins Cup titles in six years and the four state championship titles, the IceCats are a perfect 8-0 in championship games since 2008. The hockey team no doubt has shown each year how successful of a team they truly are, and hope to continue their winning tradition for years to come.

Whether chilling at home or out and about, the Latrobe area provides its students with a variety of options. A popular hangout after sporting events at school where students can grab a bite to eat and catch up with friends is Dino's or Sharkys. Most students can say these two restaurants bring an overall exciting atmosphere after games and events. If there isn't time to sit down and have a meal most opt for Sheetz, a popular gas station that provides not only normal snack foods but full meals twenty-four hours a day. You can find students hanging out all days of the week there at all hours of the day. During the week if you need a quiet place to do homework or just need a place to chat the Coffee Bean Café has been a hot spot for that. You can buy a variety of drinks and snacks while catching up with friends. Other popular places include Westmoreland Mall, Dunkin Donuts, and Walmart. Latrobe offers students many activities for all types of situations whether catching up with friends, finishing up some last minute homework, or just hanging out.

trainers & managers chillin' with the team

When considering who is involved with a team's success, athletes and coaches are the crucial playmakers. All may not know who else works behind the scenes. It is the hard-working student athletic trainers and managers who keep a team going. Being a trainer or manager takes hard work and knowing basic skills, which they learn from Amy Stephenson of UPMC. The athletes look to these certain people in times of need and rely on them to be well taken care of. Learning how to tape an occasional sprained ankle or wrist doesn't come naturally. One must learn about the basics and a lot on first aid training. Along with being a trainer, managers also have steps to take to make sure everything operates correctly. To keep score or statistics is another important role--it actually is the most important. Seeing how great being a trainer or manager is, it does come with bumps in the road. A bad tape job, a wrong stat mark or even a mistake with keeping scores are things that try to be avoided each and every competition. The satisfaction and glory of a team are held together by an athletic trainer or manager who do the little extra things for each player and coach in order for the team to have a positive and successful season.

senior chris brant in 13 words "we were very close this year because we always had each others backs."

From the long, summer practices to the final game under the Friday night lights, the Latrobe Wildcat football team was closer than ever this season and they lived up to their t-shirt motto, "Band of brothers". The team brought on some new and harder challenges this year. One of them, stated by senior Zack Short, was "dealing with a young team and having a lot of new kids playing and understanding the new offense." Even through these challenges, they still found a way to come together as a team on Friday nights. Many of the football players seemed to agree that they are a very close team. Junior Nathan Hill stated, "The team was close this year because of what happened with Zach last year." Despite all the challenges, the hard practices, or the score at the end of the games, the team came together to be united in the end.

girls basketball

senior kaitly finley in 13 words: "no matter how much anyone discourages us, we always stick together and persevere."

The girls basketball team worked very hard to achieve all of their accomplishments. With only two returning seniors, Kaity Finley and Carly Yelenic, along with many new faces, the girls knew they would have to unite and work hard in order to be successful. Under Coach Greg Fenton, the girls practiced every day after school as well as Saturday mornings for at least two hours, clearly displaying their dedication and passion to basketball. They had a rough start to their season, but the girls quickly got back on track and proved that they had what it took to win. With that in mind, the girls fought hard, playing a game nearly every other day and some back-to-back. At the end of the regular season, the girls' earned a well-deserved spot in the playoffs, but unfortunately did not win in the first round, although they came close. Despite the fact that they did not make it past the first round of the playoffs, the girls proved that they were a strong, hardworking team all season long by winning multiple games in a row, which improved their record. By doing so, they were able to qualify for a well-deserved spot in the playoffs and never played a single game without putting up a fight.

boys basketball

senior adam drake in 13 words: "we fight for a common goal, to reach our potential as a team."

The boys basketball team can definitely be described as united. From the countless team bonding events, to giving high fives on the court, the players are always there to support each other. With a common goal of making the playoffs, the team put forth an extreme effort to win. From last season having no seniors to lead the team, seven seniors this year proved to be a huge advantage. Although the boys started out their season with a loss, they came back strong winning their next two games. Throughout the season, they spent countless hours practicing, watching films and bonding with each other in order to make themselves better. After a successful set of regular season games, the boys clinched a spot in the playoffs, capturing their main goal all season long. Although the boys suffered a tough loss against the number one seed New Castle in the first round, they played a long, hard season that will definitely be remembered by all.

"I would like to recommend all of the seniors on the basketball team as the spotlight players. As a group they all brought different things to the table and were relied upon at different times during the season. I thought they really took the leadership of the team seriously. This in turn led to a successful WPIAL playoff season. Probably the highlight of the season was going undefeated at home against section opponents until the last game of the season when we slipped against Hempfield. I am confident that the seniors as a group made this possible."

Family is one of the most important things in your life. They are the ones you can count on, depend on, and always go to for help. Having family in the same school can have many advantages. For example, junior Zack Spangler said, "I am able to determine what classes are difficult, and my brother can help me with the school work." Other than helping with school work and hard classes, there are more advantages as well. Sophomore Alexis Fearer said, "riding to and from school together is really convenient." Also, Juniors Chris and Lauren Johnson say, "It's good to have someone to talk to". Family is a big factor in our lives. Having to go to school with your siblings may not be what everyone wants, but there are definitely some major advantages. You know you always have someone right there with you if you need them.

junior jonathan kolling in 13 words: "the team this year has been able to come together as a whole."

The baseball team strived for an over successful season this year. A select group of seniors led the team after tryouts and throughout the season. Coach Basciano pushed the boys to achieve their full potential on the baseball field. The baseball team took pride in representing their school colors against challenging opponents as well. The vigorous practices after school proved the team's strong sense of determination. The boys put their heart in every game and practice resulting in an overall impressive season. The team focused to continue to better themselves as the season progressed, setting personal and team goals to outplay upcoming opponents. With a large group of seniors graduating last season, the boys had to step up to fill the shoes of the leaders before them. The seniors served as role models to the underclass teammates taking them under their wing. Upcoming freshmen players were welcomed and became well adapted throughout the course of the season. Senior Ray Sowinski quoted on the season, "As a senior, I tried to help out the guys who weren't on the team last year." The positive leadership, determination, and dedication of the baseball team all played a role in the memorable 2013 baseball season.

what wouldn't fit in 13 words:

To be a thriving student and make the most out of the school year, students had to maintain and be focused even until the end of the 180 days. AP classes brought many challenges to students, staying focused and on task in the very intense courses they took. The broadcasting class had to stay focused each day to make the morning announcements and projects they made perfect. Trying to find the correct seat in the auditorium being rushed can be very difficult, but the members of the ushers club were focused and ready to take on the crowd of people for every event. Training with determination is how the wrestling team stayed focused to prepare for every match. The tennis teams kept their focus on the court from beginning until end, striving for the win. Being focused wasn't so bad to students in the end; it was a rewarding experience on the way.

girls tennis

senior abby muller in 13 words: "all of us girls really became such a close family during this season."

The 2012 girls tennis season was filled with new friendships and laughter. This year the girls faced a few obstacles with having new players. Of the fourteen players there were nine new girls. But, during the season they "all became a family" as senior Abby Muller said; and had a ton of fun together. "My favorite moment had to have been caking Mains!" said Sophomore Maddy Bucci. The team also enjoyed beating Penn Trafford, that was senior Laura Toman's favorite moment. When the season started the girls hit a bump in the road losing three matches the first week of school. They quickly realized they had to turn things around and start winning matches, which they did. The team finished 7-7 in the section and 7-10 overall. Although the girls didn't reach the record they really wanted, they still felt accomplished at the end of the season, learning and growing as a team. The girls set one goal for themselves. It was to play, and be the best players they could be, in whatever position they played. This determination that was in their hearts could be seen on, and off the courts!

boys tennis senior michael brooks in 13 words: "i definitely stayed focused by winning, because all the girls love a winner."

Before the 2013 boys tennis season began, the lack of returning players was a major concern for coach Jon Mains who stated, "We graduated all but 2 starters from last year so this was a rebuilding year. However, we still had high expectations. Our goals were to be competitive in every match, make team playoffs, and to have fun." As the team recruited new players, they were aware that the few veteran players would have a lot of coaching to do; and hard work, focus, and determination would be required by everyone if they wanted to have a successful season. Then as the season took off, tough practices proved the amount of dedication that coach Mains expected from the boys. He knew all his goals were attainable because the developing team all worked hard and had great attitudes. Amongst the tough competition of Franklin Regional, Penn Trafford, Norwin, and Kiski, the guys all still managed to make the practices enjoyable by cracking jokes to each other and continuing the legend of the "Asia Hammer Smacka Down." The team focused on making it to playoffs and doing well in sections. In keeping their sights set on big goals, they knew they'd have a fun and successful season.

The Greater Latrobe Wrestling team strived to remain focused to reach personal goals this season. The team was led by a select group of returning seniors that took on the responsibility of becoming new role models for the underclassmen. Wrestlers endured hours of vigorous practices mentally and physically preparing for every match. Coach Harbert and Coach Schmeling motivated the team to give every effort into practice in order to succeed in matches. Practicing after school everyday tends to dampen the motivation of a team, but the wrestlers remained headstrong. Throughout the season, the boys became closer and constantly pushed each other to reach their full potential. Senior Mitch Lesko stated, "The team went into every match with the intention of winning, always keeping our heads up looking forward to our next opponent." The Greater Latrobe Wrestling team remained focused on individual matches resulting in an overall successful season. The wrestlers carried the name of the Latrobe School District with honor representing their school with their talent. The varsity team excelled on to the PIAA Championship, finishing the match in 6th place. The determination of the wrestling team resulted in an overall successful season for outgoing seniors and returning underclassmen.

ap classes students accept the challenge

When scheduling for classes, most students at Greater Latrobe make the initiative to take at least one AP class before graduating. Greater Latrobe offers a total of fifteen AP classes to the student body. These classes are taken by most students to help them prepare for college, raise their GPA, help test out of classes in college, or just for the challenge. When asking some students why they chose to take their AP classes, Paige Rossi said "I chose to take it because colleges like to see harder classes on your senior schedule." Even though most of these courses are rigorous and challenging most students find it benefiting them in the long run.

outstanding

Language Arts

"Sarah Fox is an adept critical thinker. Throughout her coursework in the Language Arts Department, Sarah exhibited both dedication to and passion for the subject matter. She is an excellent writer and uses this talent to expertly articulate insights she gains as a result of her ability to analyze and interpret complex literary works. A true lover of learning, Sarah moves to New York University well-prepared to succeed in a rigorous academic environment."

-Mrs. Snyder

Mathematics

"Rob Vasinko has excelled in all of his math courses, consistently producing high quality work that demonstrates exceptional mathematical ability. Moreover, he is a hardworking, conscientious student who has always been willing to help other students. It has been a pleasure and privilege to have him in class."

-Mrs. Pompelia

Social Studies

"Andrew Armstrong has taken many social studies classes. AP US History, U.S. History, Vietnam, World cultures, Classic Civilizations, European History are several examples. Andrew always made himself available to help the Social Studies department whenever possible. He has served as teachers aide, tutor, freelance writer and has helped serve and promote numerous initiatives. Andrew's genuine desire to learn history combined with his helpful personality has made him the selection of the Social Studies department."

-Mr. Wetzel

Science

"Patience, dedication, and intelligence are just a few of Ben Havrilla's remarkable characteristics that have enabled him not only to be successful within my classroom, but also to be a top performing AP Physics student. He possesses the ability to solve difficult abstract and deductive reasoning problems—problems that many other students simply cannot solve. His classroom performance illustrates his superior intelligence, his strong motivation to learn, his dedication to achieve excellence, his respect for others, and his inherent love of learning. This is a rare and unique quality even among the most gifted of students. In short he is a paramount example of an exemplary student, as well as an exemplary individual."

-Mrs. Keyser

World Languages

"Victor Sipe is currently in AP German and he's so enthusiastic! He speaks German even when he doesn't have to. He is a hard worker and strives for excellence in all his endeavors. Vic's passion for learning the language is contagious and it spurs his classmates on as they speak German together. He truly is an exceptional young man."

- Ms. Bailey

Art

"We have had Gina Rock in art classes, but this year she is also the president of National Art Honor Society, so we have been working with her to manage NAHS. She has spent a good deal of time outside of school to work on NAHS community service projects. Gina is a terrific artist—creative, hard-working, and persistent. She always comes into class ready to work. Gina is outstanding because she is a good student, overall, and also participates in extra activities that are quite demanding, but still, does not neglect her class work and is always ready with a smile and a willingness to assist others."

-Mrs. Mack and Mrs. Balko

Seniors

Technology Education

"Tyler McClintock has taken wood shop for three years and has always strived for perfection, helped other classmates, and was an overall joy to have in class. His work ethic is phenomenal and his projects are all of high quality. Tyler also excels in the area of computer aided drafting and design. His work is always complete, detailed and on time. Tyler has the ability to solve complex problems and come up with solutions on his own. Tyler is also very helpful to other students and a joy to have in class. Tyler's strong skills set in two different technology education disciplines have earned him the outstanding senior award."

-Mr. Hudock

Family and Consumer Sciences

"Lindsay Takitch shows great interest and enthusiasm in the Family and Consumer Sciences courses she takes. In her classes she was always enthusiastic and contributed to her group. She is extremely creative, whether it is working on projects in Fabric Arts or creating fun and active lessons for the Kitty Kat Preschool students. Her willingness to help others, loyalty, honesty, and friendly personality are among the many reasons she was selected as the outstanding student."

-Mrs. Burford

Business

"Blake Reeping has excelled as one of the best business students I have encountered in my 16 years of teaching. He consistently demonstrated excellent communication skills and a higher level of thinking and understanding during class discussions. His "need to know more" attitude was always a welcome part of the classroom activities. Blake's passion and commitment to learning was evident on a daily basis. I have no doubt that Blake will achieve great success in his future."

-Mrs. Butler

Physical Education

"Throughout the year, I have seen Jacob Artuso go from a good student to an outstanding student. He not only is on task and reaches each goal I set for the class, day in and day out, but exceeds expectations in multiple ways. Jake puts forth maximum effort and takes pride in the work he does. He has taken the initiative to lead and teach his peers alternate exercises utilizing different equipment. Jake displays various characteristics that make him a strong leader and will bring him much success. By witnessing his determination, work ethic, and personality in action, I have no doubt that this young man has a bright future ahead of him."

-Miss Zeunges

Band

"Patrick Rounds has certainly made an outstanding contribution to the music department at Greater Latrobe. His participation in multiple band and choir festivals serve as evidence of his musical accomplishments. As the Drum Major of the Marching Band and the Drum Major in ensembles, Patrick leads by example while remaining positive and humble."

-Mr. Sheridan

Chorus

"Hayley Simpson has been an outstanding member of the SHS music department for the past 3 years. Not only is Hayley an outstanding musician, but she is a true leader that dedicates herself to the music department in multiple facets. She holds herself and those around her to high standards. Most importantly, Hayley understands the importance of making everyone feel welcome and is encouraging to all students within the program."

what wouldn't fit in 13 words:

To the outgoing class of 2013: it simply could not fit into 13 words how accomplished you truly are. You have created such an energetic year, spirited and and full of compassion about your school. You made the den as loud and fierce as can be while cheering on the cats. As diverse as the students are, you were able bring everyone together, creating a united force throughout the high school. With your chill attitudes, you made a bold statement regarding this year. You made it clear that this would be the most memorable year yet, and remained driven to make this statement 100% true. Through all of this, you managed to keep your eyes on the prize: graduation. You were focused and very bright along this journey. You were even creative in finding ways to avoid senioritis. As you walk through these doors one last time to receive your diplomas, you should know that there are so many more than 13 words to describe how proud the people closest to you truly are, but hopefully this section can serve some justice. Congratulations seniors, you made it!

Adam,
It has been such a joy and blessing to watch you grow from a cute little baby to such a handsome, caring, and confident young man. Your many talents, accomplishments, and positive attitude are only a small part of what makes you a son and brother to be proud of. We all love your awesome sense of humor as well.

We wish you much happiness and success for the future.

Thank you for the wonderful memories and remember... always be strong in your faith.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Cameron, and Jillian

Blaire Barnhart

To our bright, bubbly daughter and sister, Blaire,

We could not be any prouder of the beautiful young woman you've become. As you move onto your new chapters in life, take with you not only your diligence but also your ability to make anyone smile. God bless you and good luck in all that you do. We love you so much!

-Mom, Dad, and Brooke

ANDREW BOYER

Andrew,
aka Our Car Guy,

We are all very proud of you. Your wit, smile, friendliness and faith are hallmarks of a fine young man.

Your willingness to help others is inspiring and so needed in this world.

Dream big dreams. Your determination will take you there.

With love and God's blessings,
Mom, Dad & Devin

Olivia,

"You may not end up where you thought you were going, but you will end up where you are meant to be."

Carly Dawn Yelenic

The little girl who was always moving and busy has turned into a wonderful young lady. The years have passed too quickly but throughout those years, you have made us so proud. You have had many successes from academics to athletics. Your future will be full of new challenges and we know you will face them with strength and perserverance. Follow your dreams and your heart honey. We will love you always.

Love Mom and Dad

To my little sister, congratulations! I'm so proud of you. I love you.

-Lindsey

Matthew Jodis

Dear Matthew,
God blessed you with an open, loving, happy, and energetic personality that makes you a joy to be around. Every once in a while you have been thrown a challenge, and your heart, mind, and disposition have been there to see you through. We are so proud of how you respond to adversity and all that you have achieved. We are excited to see and share with you all that you will do in the future!

Congratulations!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Matt,
I'm proud of you and who you have become.
I hope you have a lot of success in college.

Love,
Chris

Kate Rellick

We are so proud of you.
Thanks for the wonderful memories. We look forward to many more..

Love,
Your Family 2013

Robert Vasinko

We have watched you grow from a shy little boy who never wanted to be away from home. Who loved Mr. Rogers and would spend the day digging a hole just to have a napping spot for him and his puppy. The boy who dreamed of being a farmer and bowling with Pappy. Whose favorite football star was Brett Favre because he played for the "John Deere" team. Who looked up to his big brother and took extra care of his little brother and sister. And now, an ambitious, motivated, faithful, respectful, compassionate young man ready to take on the next step in his life. We are so proud of how you have managed to juggle all you do with such great success. Continue to pray and dream to become that which you aspire to be. We love you very much!!

Believe with all of your heart that you will do all that you were made to do.
-Orison Swett Marden

Try not to be a man of success but a man of value.
-Albert Einstein

Congratulations Robert!
You're the best.

LAURA TOMAN

Laura,
Wow! Our little sister is graduating from High School. It's so easy to still see you as Mom and Dad's baby girl, but you are now well on your way to becoming an amazing young woman. Growing up together was a lot of fun and we have terrific childhood memories. You are funny, caring, and loving. Regardless of how fast time moves or where it takes us, remember that we will always be here to love and support each other. Congratulations on a great achievement. But don't grow up too fast! We love having a little sister to hang out with. Love, Brad and Megan

Laura,
I cannot believe you are already graduating from High School and getting ready to go off to college. When I think of my little sister, I see you as a young girl still growing up. But now we are both adults and you are an awesome sister who is always enjoyable and fun(ny) to be around! I am excited for you and looking forward to being your brother and best friend as we continue to find our way in the future. Love, Alex

Meet the Staff of 13 Words

2013 Yearbook Girls

Britney Gaia

Britney,
We've been friends since the days where our biggest worry was how to get out of nap time and throughout our time in school together we have made so many unforgettable memories! I'm glad that we got to be closer friends this year in yearbook. With your energetic personality you were able to brighten mine as well as many other's moods, and put a smile on someone's face when they really needed it. I hope that we will be able to stay close friends after this year is over! I know you'll go on to do amazing things and I'm so glad that I got to call you one of my close friends.

Love
Allie

Erika,
There hasn't been one day this year that you haven't caused me to double over in laughter. Your spirited and bubbly personality brings so much happiness to this staff, especially during times of stress. Your enthusiasm in making this book a success has shown throughout this year. I wish you the best of luck with everything you do in your future and I'll miss you!

Love, Cassidy

Allie,
We have become such good friends over these past few years. I loved having yearbook with you and getting to know you better. I could always come to you if I needed someone to talk to. You made our yearbook parties memorable with the diverse songs you played. We would sing Miley Cyrus, Nsync, and Back Street Boys during lunch. I'll never forget the summer before at the beach. We have shared so many memories together. You made this the best senior year ever and I'm so thankful you were a part of mine. I wish you good luck at college and I hope we stay close even after we graduate.

Love,
Kate

Haley,
I'm so glad that we have gotten to know each other these past two years of yearbook! It has been a long journey, but we have finally made it! Your bold thoughts, ideas and creativity were quite an asset and definitely helped in developing the theme and layouts throughout the book. You were always calm and understanding, which helped tremendously through the many stressful times. You have such a bold personality, and I know that you will have great success in your future. I wish you the best of luck in all that you do!
Love,
Maggie

Maggie Kisick

Maggie,
What would I do without you? I'm so glad that we became so close this year. You're so creative, and you always know the perfect solution to fix everything. Your creativity has led our group to so many things, including the theme of the book. Thank you for all of the hard work that you put into the book, it would have been nothing without you! I love you so much!
Love, Rebecca

Maria Mulheren

Maria,
I've really enjoyed the opportunity to get to know you a lot better in the past two years during yearbook. You have brought some fierce ideas to the book that has made the overall finishing product a hundred times better. I loved sharing the window seat with you and watching the superlative pictures being taken. Thank you for being a fierce staff member and friend. I really wish you the best of luck in your future and hope that you continue to bring your fierce personality on to everything you do!
love,
Haley

Ciara,
 This year has been a good one for sure! Working on the yearbook with you has been such a good time and your chill attitude has made this year a lot of fun, keeping everyone calm even in the most stressful situations. From 7th grade thinking we were cool, singing and dancing to Justin Bieber, until now, we've made so many good memories that will definitely stay with us. Your want for success and determination will definitely get you far no matter where you go in life. Good luck at college and in your future, have fun, and stay chill!

Cassidy

Christian

Cassidy, you made yearbook such an amazing experience lighting up the room with your bright smile! We have been great friends for over seven years and you continued to carry your positive attitude to the classroom. You offered such bright ideas to enhance the content of our senior yearbook. You have the ability to lift the spirits of others with your bright spirit. I wish you the best of luck, but I guarantee a bright future is ahead of you.

Love you!
 Love, Ciara

Rebecca,

I can't even begin to describe how much you meant to the yearbook staff this year. You always came in everyday, focused and on task ready to work on your spread. You have the best easy-going personality that even in the craziest times, you would be focused on everyone else rather than yourself and what you could do to help the other staff members... especially me! I don't know what anyone would have done without you! I couldn't have asked for a better friend to spend 180 days with to make it the best class ever. I love you so much, best of luck in everything you do and anything that comes your way in the future! Love, Erika

Rebecca Baldonieri

Kate Rellick

Dear Kate,
 Soo happy you joined the YB team this year! Your outgoing personality filled our room with fun and excitement each day and when times got tough, you stayed positive and always kept us laughing. I'm so happy we've gotten to make memories all while preserving memories creating this book, :) I know you and your outgoing nature will make it extremely far in life and I wish you the best of luck with your future!

Love,
 Maria

Volume 90 of the Latrobean, "13 Words," was published by the yearbook staff of Greater Latrobe Senior High School in Latrobe, Pennsylvania, and printed by Herff Jones Yearbooks in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. The account was serviced by representative Carol Barber, customer service adviser, Bryan Harber, and technical support adviser Amber Chase. The yearbook staff co-advisors Michele Butler and Scott Marker, along with the editors created the theme "13 Words" at the Johnstown Design clinic in May 2012. The book cover was designed by Rob Schab, a Herff Jones creative artist from the Gettysburg Plant. The cover is a custom embossed silkscreen design with a gray flannel base and two applied colors. The endsheets are a four color custom design. The fonts used in this book were AHJ Avalon, AHJ Cursive Hand, and AHJ Sans. The Latrobean pages were submitted to the plant electronically via the Herff Jones e-Design website. The Latrobean was produced using HJ e-Design on HP Probook laptops. Senior portraits, candid services, and underclass portraits were provided by Timeless Expressions Studio 8 of Greensburg, Pennsylvania. Additional photographs were submitted by the students via HJ e-share or taken by the Latrobean staff members on a variety of personal cameras.
